

Presentation Dynamics

Secrets and Strategies for Effective Presentations

This course is critical for anyone who has something important to communicate, be it your brilliant idea, your new product, your passion, your company's vision, your strategic plan, or a change you want to create in the world.

Most presentation skills trainings teach acting techniques (vocal variety, gesturing, etc) in order to mask the fears associated with public speaking. In a time when our culture's biggest issue is trust, these techniques are seen as inauthentic and off-putting. We teach people how to stand on an authentic ground, creating strong connections with the audience and producing a trusting and collaborative learning environment.

Few, if any, public speaking courses engage the presenter as a person, much less find ways to explore the creative use of personality. This is our particular area of expertise and part of what makes Presentation Dynamics uniquely exciting and effective.

Whether presenting one-to-one, or one-to-thousands, participants learn how to effectively present their ideas and respond better to others. Through the learning mechanism of actual presentation, they gain increased awareness of their personal presentation styles, including an assessment of what works and what doesn't. In addition to mastering basic presentation techniques, they learn how to make the most elegant compensations for their liabilities, and how to bring themselves to the material in such a way that it is more alive and in the moment. In other words, those listening find them more interesting, engaging and entertaining.

If you are looking for a profound way to know yourself on a deep level and a compelling way to present that to the world, reserve your seat for Presentation Dynamics Intensive.

Some of the things that are being said about Presentation Dynamics:

"For me, this course was incredibly useful and timely. Although I have lots of experience being in front of rooms, I wanted to 'play a bigger game' s as a presenter. I learned so many new tools and ideas on how to improve. I got to experience how I show up to others. The feedback was relevant and memorable. I now notice, when I'm leading - how much better I am prepared, how much more on ground I feel, and what to do if I feel off of these. In the end, I have much more confidence about how I present. "

Darren Kaulius,
Presenter. Facilitator. Coach

"I never imagined that a course focused on public speaking would have such a profoundly beautiful impact on me - mind, body and soul. I learned how to connect deeply with my content, my audience and myself and took "being in service" to a whole new level. I witnessed some of the most amazing transformations I have ever seen in an ESI program room and was able to experience the gift that honest and constructive feedback, in a safe environment, can truly be. As always, with an ESI course, I left the program feeling empowered and inspired."

Leslie Hanna
Mother of Three

"Shortly after taking the Presentation Dynamics I went to a destination wedding for my nephew. His Ordained Minister and Master of Ceremonies was unable to perform. I was asked the day of the wedding to fill in. I was honored to be able to give them this amazing gift. The profound skills I learned at PDI gave me the confidence and know-how to step up to the plate. I simply LOVED this program! "

"As a University Professor I present information every day. Presentation Dynamics Intensive provided me with some great tools and perspectives that helped me increase student engagement, refine my existing presentation style, and feel even more comfortable at the front of a room. "

Guy Le Masurier, PhD, SHAPE America Fellow
Professor of Sport, Health & Physical Education
Vancouver Island University

"Presentation Dynamics is completely different from any other public speaking courses I've taken. It dives into what really matters to an audience and challenged me to get honest about what gets in the way of being a presenter people are compelled to listen to. I received the powerful, honest feedback I needed to get out of my own way and be in service to my audience. I would recommend the course to anyone who wants to take their presentation skills to a whole new level."
